

23 March - T

Got up at 5³⁰ so as to allow time to press some clothes

Put up my lunch, dressed, to breakfast

I pressed clothes for half an hr
At the off. Contact w/ the Reg. C. who on the Legal Dept. Justice - I had more diff. w/ it & Don had to help me sev times - finally aft working on it nearly 3 hrs, we ran off a clean copy & showed it to Maggie

At noon I went to a film of a Phil Doreline TV show featuring Dr. Meyer Friedman on stress as a cause of heart attacks - to my surprise, attendance was very slight

Most of the aft I spent transcribing a tape of Charles Smith on mobile homes for the Idaho Power Co. proj. at Park Springs, Wyo. - it was an 11-p draft, double-spaced, but etc for length presented no probl

11/ I have purposely avoided talking about the Patricia Hearst verdict w/Dor - Bob O'Neil inquired how I felt about it when Dor was not in the rm - I told him I was of 2 minds about it - I thought her life was ruined in any case but I did not think prison would help anyone - on the other hand, as far as legality went, I thought she was guilty - later I heard Dor discuss the case w/ Chuck Stiles, who has had much courtroom exper - as I suspected, Dor was much gratified by the decis. - Chuck thought that Patricia would get a reduced sentence in return for giving evidence agst the Harris!!

I referred

Prepared dinner, etc, & washed dishes

Washed clothes as I expect to go to Lori's tom aft wk - I washed underwear & some blouses & dresses

The msg from the Te
